Dear Don:

Thank you so much for your phone call concerning my new appointment. It has been a long time since that day you called and I am sorry for the tardiness in sending you this note, but I did want to await the completion and swearing-in processes.

I feel confident about the future and will give this assignment the very best I have. I know there will be problems, but I think the opportunities will outnumber them.

Knowing that fine and dedicated professionals like yourself are contributing so much to their Government through this great Agency gives me a great sense of optimism.

All the best.

Faithfully yours,
